

Music from a far away place

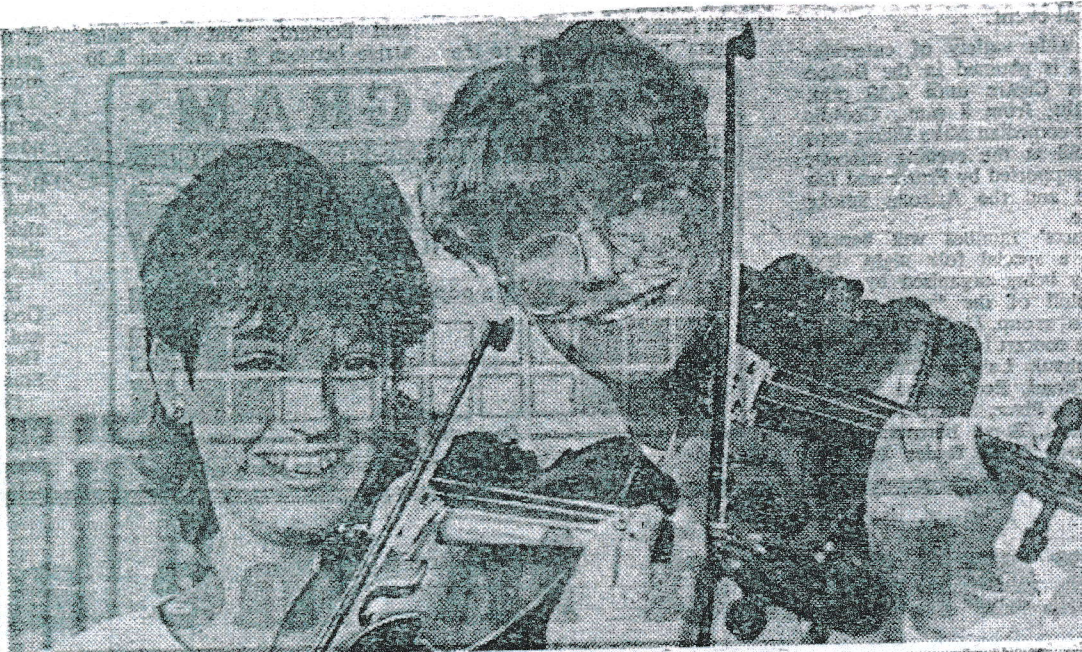

THE Paderborn Musikschule Orchestra joined forces with Bolton Youth Orchestra in a grand concert held in the Great Hall at Bolton Metropolitan College this week.

The concert was the highlight of the fifth biennial visit to Bolton by the Orchestra of the Paderborn School of Music.

The young German musicians are staying with families of the Bolton Youth Orchestra during their stay.

Pictures:
RICHARD ROLLON

● Little and Large... viola player Alison Ray, aged 16, of Norwick Close, Ladybridge, with her guest for the visit, Gregor Winkelhahn, aged 20, from Paderborn, who plays the double bass. Alison is a pupil at Bolton School.

LEFT: Tuning up . . . Fiona Dent, left, aged 17, of Hough Fold Way, Harwood, with her visitor, Monika Viotto, aged 16, from Paderborn.

LEFT: Two members of the Paderborn Musikschule Orchestra performing in the Great Hall.

BELOW: Members of the Paderborn Musikschule Orchestra and the Bolton Youth Orchestra performing under the direction of Herr Eugen Spratte, the head of the Paderborn Musikschule.